

YOUR VOICE MATTERS:

PRESERVE THE LEGACY OF MLK DRIVE

Share your stories from St. Louis's MLK neighborhoods! Help preserve the history of its people, places, and businesses for future generations.

DO YOU HAVE memories of historically and culturally significant people, legends, buildings, places, businesses, and stories from the MLK neighborhoods in St. Louis? Your experiences are a vital part of our shared history, and we want to hear them!

Events: Sep 23–26 from 4:30–6:30pm

Sep 23: Kingshighway to Kienlen

*Missouri Historical Society: Library and Research Center—225 South Skinker St.
Louis, MO 63105*

Sep 24: Leffingwell to Vandeventer

*Washington Metropolitan AME Zion Church—613 Garrison Avenue
St. Louis, MO 63103*

Sep 25: Tucker to Leffingwell

*Harris–Stowe State University: National Black Radio Hall of Fame
Vashon Center—Compton and Market across from the Chaifetz Arena*

Sep 26: Vandeventer to Kingshighway

*Missouri Historical Society: Library and Research Center—225 South Skinker St.
Louis, MO 63105*

Bring your friends, family, and neighbors who have stories to tell. The more voices we gather, the richer our preserved history becomes!

